

Forgotten Spaces: Episode 2 Engage Perth Summary

JULY 2023 SURVEY RESULTS

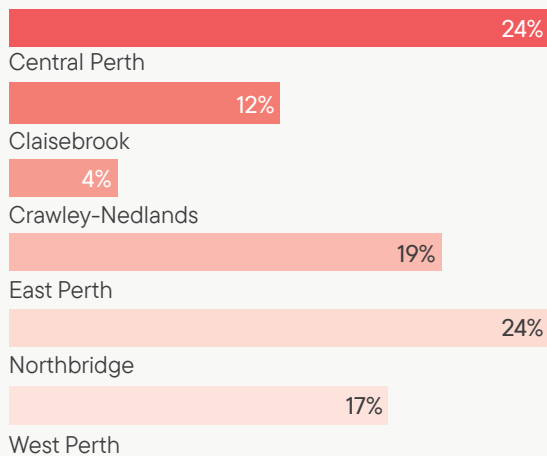

An online survey was launched on 21 June 2023 and made available via the City's online platform, Engage Perth until 5 July 2023. The intent of the survey was to capture community feedback and ideas on the new Forgotten Spaces document and high-level expectations for its future in revitalising Perth's laneways.

A total number of 108 survey responses were received. The Engage Perth platform captured a total of 374 visits.

WHO DID WE HEAR FROM

RESIDENTS

AGE BREAKDOWN

WHAT DID WE HEAR

100%

supported the City's commitment to the revitalisation of laneways

79%

believed all 11 recommendations were equally important

Continuing to improve the public realm

Showcasing the City of Light

Supporting small scale events & businesses

Enhancing safety through increased lighting

Developing a Public Art Framework

Commissioning additional public art

Investigating the feasibility of permit walls

Enhancing wayfinding by giving them names

Protecting the existing physical form & function

Ensuring new developments have a positive impact

Signposting as slow speed shared spaces

Prince Lane, Central Perth

WHAT DID WE HEAR

21%

ranked the recommendations by importance.

The top 5 were:

- 1

Enhancing safety through increased lighting
- 2

Continuing to improve the public realm
- 3

Ensuring new developments have a positive impact
- 4

Supporting small scale events & businesses
- 5

Commissioning additional public art

More alfresco dining, we have the best weather and we should utilise it.

Feature lighting and more murals!

Ongoing program for laneways to be cleaned and maintained.

Adding trees and plants to these spaces that currently lack greenery.

Welcome more activity and life in our laneways, including events.

Revitalise the laneways with small restaurants, cafes and other businesses.